

WHY DO PEOPLE EMBRACE WICKEDNESS?

We know the world is filled with people who simply choose to follow evil desires and create a world filled with crime, atheism, indifference to law and other people. What may drive them?

Isaiah in his great book speak of what motivates these people to chaos and evil. They believe there is no God who would hold them accountable and if a divine force does exist he does not care and is not watching. These people find no principles that are truth and have therefore convinced themselves that evil is good and good is evil. Everyone does what they want since they believe in no standard. They have become impressed with their own sense of self-importance and that their worldly wisdom is superior. Without doubt, they have grown used to making heroes out of villains.

In our world, political correctness prevails and those who take stands on traditional and Biblical truth are persecuted and considered out of touch. We cannot be afraid to condemn evil. It is clear that God calls us to take up the cause of right and strive to preach the truth. We must arm ourselves to give reason for our faith and stand with wisdom against the evil actions in our world while loving the souls of everyone.

KEEPING MARRIAGE HEALTHY

Our society seems to be engaged in a war on the family. The foundation, since the beginning of time, is the healthy marriage. What are some keys to that goal—Commitment to the growth and interest of your partner. Teamworks important words -(Let's try it your way) Clear honest Communication certainly a necessary ingredient Discover and meet the emotional, physical, intimacy needs of your partner. Conflict happens, so learn how to resolve it peacefully. Three As— Apologize for something in the past, Appreciate something in the present, Anticipate something in the future. Create a common vision for your future. Agree on a budget and financial goals. Hold common religious views and a plan with God's help to raise a family and how time will be spent outside work. And, of course, live up to the vows of faithfulness
